Many the gifts, many the people, many the hearts that yearn to belong.
Let us be servants to one another, making your kingdom come.
Welcome to Holy Apostles Church and Parish – a thriving community in Pimlico. We hope you’ll join us and bring your own unique gifts and experience. Lay people of all ages and nationalities, married and single, with children and without, play a prominent part. So, whatever you do, wherever you are from, whatever your walk of life has been, we invite you to share worship and fellowship with us. Enjoy a real sense of belonging to a community, right in the heart of London.

A wide variety of people attend our community’s lively Family Mass on Sundays at 10:30am, with music led by the folk group. The Saturday evening 6pm Mass has organ music and established hymns. The 9am Sunday Mass is quieter still, with just a few hymns.

We are a warm and active community. There are many different projects, groups, and activities welcoming all – from the youngest to the oldest. Fr Pat encourages and expects lay people to take their full responsibility in the parish.

There is plenty for you to do if you want to; or you may prefer just to join the community for Sunday Mass, or sit and meditate and pray. Just choose how you want to fit in.

Please come and see for yourself!
Dear reader,

As parish priest I greet you and I extend to you a warm welcome on behalf of the Catholic community of Holy Apostles parish here in Pimlico in central London.

Maybe you have lived here for some time. Maybe you have just moved here from another part of London, the UK or from abroad. Whichever, I warmly welcome you. I wish you blessings, prosperity and happiness in your new home and I invite you to join our parish community.

Our parish family is made up of people whose families have lived in this part of London for generations, of people from all parts of the UK, and many of us are from all other parts of the world. It makes for a very interesting mix of people – each with their own gifts, customs and cultures. But what we all have in common is our Catholic faith.

Now, don’t let me saying that, frighten you off. There are some whose faith is very strong. Others whose faith is up and down, others who come and go and hang on by the skin of their teeth – but all of us are searching for God and seeking to know Him better. Please join us. There’s a place for everyone.

If I can be of service to you personally, please don’t hesitate to call me or email me and I will get back to you as soon as possible.

Again, welcome to our parish!

Yours devotedly

Canon Pat Browne
Parish Priest

Holy Apostles is a generous parish. That’s good, because it enables us to undertake a lot of commitments both in the local parish community and in our sister parish in Kenya.

You can help support us with a regular offertory donation.

If you choose to put money in the offertory plate at weekly Mass, you could use an offertory envelope (available at the Priest’s House). These also provide us with a regular income.

The best way to give a regular donation is to make a standing order from your Bank Account. This allows us to plan more efficiently to meet the needs of the parish as we know how much funding is coming in. It also reduces the amount of paperwork and money counting we need to do.

GIFT AID

If you are a taxpayer, we can claim an additional 25p as gift aid from the taxman for every pound you give us. We can collect Gift Aid from donations that come via standing order or offertory envelope, if you complete the attached form.

You will find Gift Aid and Bankers Order forms on the next page.
